

SENATE OVERRIDES PRESIDENT'S VETO OF FARMER'S RELIEF BILL

Passes Measure to Revive War Finance Corporation--President Says it is Not Needed in Peace Times--Senator Penrose Votes to Sustain The Veto.

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—Veto by President Wilson today of the farmers relief bill to revive the war finance corporation was followed almost immediately by a vote of fifty three to five in the senate to make the bill law despite executive disapproval. The house will take up the measure tomorrow and predictions were general that it would duplicate the senate's action and thus place the bill on the statute books.

President Wilson in a lengthy veto message, declared he withheld his approval of the bill because the war finance corporation was a war credit agency, not desirable or needed in peace times.

He said that it "would exert no beneficial influence on the situation--would raise false hopes among the very people who would expect most and would be hurtful to the natural and orderly processes of business and finances. The legislation the president also said would result in additional credit burdens and the government he contended, should not be "called upon further to finance private business at public expense."

Resuming Business Methods
Referring to widespread demand for abolition of war agencies and removal of governmental influence from business, the president said he had "sympathy" with this view and added that "the nation should resume its usual business methods."

Upon reading of the veto message in the senate, Senator Underwood of Alabama, Democrat, urged its immediate consideration for which unanimous consent was secured by Chairman Gronna of the agriculture committee which reported the bill.

Senator Underwood followed with the only address made declaring that financial distress now was greater than during the war and that he felt confident of wise administration of the proposed law that would cause no undue drain on the treasury.

On the senate roll call twenty nine Democrats were joined by twenty four Republicans in overriding the veto. Supporting the president's position were two Democrats, Senators Gerry, Rhode Island, and Thomas of Colorado and three Republicans, Elkins and Sutherland of West Virginia and Keys of New Hampshire. Senators Glass, Democrat, Virginia and Edge, Republican, New Jersey voted against overriding the veto, but withdrew their votes on account of having pairs. Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania, a Republican leader, was paired but announced that he would vote to sustain the veto.

Message Read in House
The president's message also was read in the house. Representative Mondell of Wyoming, Republican leader announced later that it would be taken up tomorrow at the opening of the house, but without any definite arrangements for a vote. Advocates of the bill, however, expressed confidence that the house would vote to enact the bill despite the veto. The house passed the bill by a vote of 212 to 61 or much more than the necessary two thirds majority. Many of the negative votes were cast by Republicans.

Before the president's message reached the senate today, Senator Harrison, Democrat, Mississippi a leading advocate of the legislation criticized Secretary Houston, declaring that the treasury head, according to newspaper reports had advised Presidential disapproval of the bill without indicating such opposition when Mr. Houston was before congressional committees.

Senator Edge issued a statement tonight declaring that the president's arguments against the bill were absolutely unanswerable.

By issuing bonds the finance corporation Senator Edge said would "adversely affect the present financial and economic situation without any direct resultant to producers."

SENATE DEBATES PANAMA CANAL AND ROOSEVELT

Senator Kellogg De- fends Late Presi- dent's Action

GREAT ACT OF GREAT PRESIDENT

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—President Roosevelt's action in connection with the acquisition of the Panama Canal Zone was attacked and defended today in the senate. Urging ratification of the Colombian treaty involving payment of a $25,000,000 indemnity to Colombia for the partition of Panama, Senator Thomas, Democrat, of Colorado, charged that President Roosevelt "acquired the right of way for the canal from a band of filibusters by bartering for it the honor of the nation."

The late former president was defended by Senator Kellogg, Republican of Minnesota, who told the senate he could "not sit in silence and listen to reflections on the character and statesmanship of Theodore Roosevelt without expressing myself."

"The Panama Canal, its history, construction and success is an open book," said Senator Kellogg. "It has been discussed, investigated and now supported, I am convinced, by the American people and the civilized world."

"Not only that, but John Hay, a great American and a great secretary of state, helped write that history. So did Elihu Root, another, and so did Philander Knox. Theodore Roosevelt said once, it is true: 'I took Panama.' Did he say he took it unjustly or in contravention to international law?"

"Does the senator think our treaties with Colombia guaranteed by insurrection? That belief is not borne out by the judgment of authority or the facts. Does he think revolution was an exceptional thing in Panama? There were 50 revolutions in Panama in 50 years!"

"Did our treaties authorize the landing of American marines to prevent Colombian troops from suppressing revolution?" asked Senator Penrose, Democrat, Ohio.

"Yes," Senator Kellogg replied. "Specifically, we had treaty powers to protect the communication across the Isthmus and the Panama railroad."

But I am not here now to discuss the treaties or the canal. I want to register only my opinion that the acquisition of the canal rights was one of the great acts of a great president in a great era of American history."

WAS ADVISED AGAINST RETURNING TO IRELAND

Wanted DeValera to Remain in United States--Secretary Says President Fully Informed of Affairs in That Country.

(By The Associated Press)
New York, Jan. 3.—Eamonn de Valera, president of the Irish Republic, in returning to Ireland did so against the advice of Dail Eireann, the Irish Parliament, which was anxious that he remain in America to present the republic's claim before the new administration. This was announced here tonight by Harry Boland, de Valera's secretary, who added that "events moved so rapidly in Ireland in the past few months President de Valera decided on his initiative to return."

Mr. Boland said de Valera had been in close touch with the Irish republican government ever since he landed in the United States and was fully informed of events there. He had no communication, however, with the British government, Boland asserted. DeValera he continued, together with the acting president of the Irish republic had announced in behalf of their parliament, they were prepared "as representatives of England to draw a peace treaty between the two nations."

HOLDS LABOR UNIONS ACCOUNTABLE UNDER ANTI-TRUST LAWS

Supreme Court Hands Down This Decision Monday

LABOR LEADERS DECLINE TO COMMENT

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—Labor Unions or their members are accountable under the anti-trust laws where they depart from their "normal and legitimate objects and engage in an actual combination or conspiracy in restraint of trade, the supreme court held today in an opinion on which it divided, six to three."

The court reversed lower court decree dismissing the application of the Duplex Printing Company of Battle Creek, Mich., for an injunction restraining Emil J. Deering and W. M. Bramley, as business agents of the international association of machinists from continuing a so-called secondary boycott.

This was described by the court as "a combination not merely to refrain from dealing with complainant or to advise or by peaceful means to persuade complainants' customers to refrain (primary boycott), but to exercise coercive pressure upon such customers actual and prospective, in order to cause them to withhold or withdraw patronage from complainant thru fear of loss or damage to themselves should they deal with it."

Decline to Comment.
Labor leaders of prominence declined to comment on the decision of the court which is the first to be given on what President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor has described as "labor's bill of rights."

At the headquarters of the International Association of Machinists it was said that all the officers were out of town. Immunity from prosecution was claimed for the agents of the union under section six of the Clayton act which sets forth that the "labor of a human being is not an article or commodity." It also was contended during the course of the litigation that under section twenty of the same statute the courts were specifically restrained from granting injunctions such as that for which application was made.

EMERGENCY TARIFF MEASURE WILL BE TAKEN UP TODAY

Bill May be Buried in Com- mittee is Intima- tion

SENATOR PENROSE PRESENTS BILLS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—The Fordney emergency tariff bill will be taken up tomorrow by the senate finance committee at a meeting called by Senator Penrose, its chairman, who today returned to the senate after an absence of more than a year.

The Pennsylvania senator was very reticent, but gave indication of a desire to bury in committee the Fordney bill, which has passed the house.

Senator Penrose on his return to the capitol showed the effects of his long illness, as he apparently felt it to launch into the exacting duties of the committee. He arrived at the doors of the senate chamber in a wheel chair, but walked to his seat.

During his first day at the capitol the senator introduced several bills and held conferences with half a dozen senators. One of the bills proposed by Mr. Penrose would set aside Armistice Day as a national holiday and another would direct the bringing back from the battlefields of France of the body of an unidentified soldier for burial with proper ceremonies in Arlington National Cemetery.

The nature of the conferences held with other senators was not disclosed.

HARDING FINISHES CONFERENCES WITH POLITICAL LEADERS

Discusses Legislative Program With Curtis

TALKS WITH DAUGHERTY

(By The Associated Press)
MARION, O., Jan. 3.—President-elect Harding completed his cycle of conferences with the ranking Republican leaders of congress today with a long talk with Senator Curtis, of Kansas, Republican whip of the senate.

They discussed the legislative program for the extra session to be called soon after March 4, as well as the work to be done during the remainder of the present session. Mr. Harding laid particular emphasis on a reduction of appropriations and on prompt disposition of the appropriations measures and other routine so as to leave the way clear for constructive legislation as soon as the new session begins.

Tariff legislation will be the first task of the extra session and Senator Curtis said he believed the emergency tariff measure would pass the present session despite stubborn opposition. The Kansas senator urged that the program of the extra session include passage of an amendment to the federal reserve act, establishing a single central bank with branches in places of the regional banks now in effect.

The president-elect took the matter under advisement. Discusses Appointments
Harry M. Daugherty, the president-elect's close friend and political adviser came to Marion yesterday to discuss cabinet appointments. There was no apparent development, however, Mr. Harding declaring he had offered no appointment on the cabinet or the diplomatic service to any one.

The question of the more important diplomatic missions is understood to have been considered along with the task of making a cabinet. It is unlikely, however, that any announcement on the subject will be made in the near future.

Three names that have been prominently under consideration in connection with diplomatic appointments are those of Myron T. Herrick of Cleveland, former ambassador to France, David Jayne Hill, of New York, former ambassador to Germany, and Governor Frank O. Lowden of Illinois. Mr. Lowden has also been considered for the clearing and it is known that Mr. Harding is anxious to have him in the government service in some capacity.

DIPLOMACY WILL FINALLY SOLVE IMMIGRATION

This is the Belief of Gov- ernment Of- ficials

ITALY SUSPENDS ISSUE OF PASSPORTS

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—Ultimate solution of the immigration question thru diplomatic agreement rather than thru separate legislative action by various governments was forecast today at hearings of the senate immigration committee on the Johnson bill to impose ten months restriction on immigration to the United States.

Senator Colt of Rhode Island, chairman of the committee made public a letter from Acting Secretary of State Davis announcing that the Italian government voluntarily had suspended the issuing of passports for the United States. The letter was presented to Secretary Davis by the Italian ambassador and came as a surprise to committee members. It read in part:

"The Royal Italian government has suspended the issue of passports to subjects emigrating to the United States and will refrain from issuing such passports until informed as to the classes of immigrants desired in this country."

Gratified by Offer
The offer to co-operate in the matter with the United States was received with gratification by senators. Some expressed the belief that while it might be necessary to enact some immediate legislation to prohibit the flood "of Europeans from pouring into the United States," eventually the whole question would be solved by diplomatic agreements.

Chairman Colt said he hoped other nations would follow the course of the Italian government and obviate the necessity of "continuously legislating on this subject."

GREENWOOD MAKES STATEMENT ON HOME RULE IN IRELAND

Most Generous Home Rule Bill That Has Ever Been Passed

UP TO IRISHMEN THEMSELVES

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—Sir Hamer Greenwood, chief secretary for Ireland, has made a statement on the Irish question, the full text of which has been received by cable thru official channels. According to current rumors as to informal "explorations" of the Irish situation, Sir Hamer said:

"I can make no statements, except that so far as we are concerned, we are out for peace but there can be no compromise with murder."

Asked whether the passing of the government of Ireland had had any effect on the situation, Sir Hamer said:

"The act which now has received the royal assent is more just in its conception and more generous in its provisions than any of the previous home rule bills. Under its provisions the Irish people will have control of everything that touches everyday life. Ireland now has been granted a measure of self-government, which, when it is developed to the full extent contemplated in the act, will place her in effective control of her own national life. Yet this measure has been described as worse than useless."

Is Up to Irishmen
"The Ulster question has ceased to exist. Unity with Ireland is left to Irishmen themselves to achieve thru their elected representatives in their own parliaments. The act is the pledge of Britain's good will to Ireland."

"Whatever may be the developments of the future, I believe that the political historian will point to this act as the beginning of the end of the Irish question. At any rate it hands over to Irish men and women the government of their own great country."

WORLD ARMAMENT REDUCTION TAKEN UP BY U. S. SENATE

Start the Hearing by Questioning Nav- al Men

AMERICAN PROGRAM IS LARGEST

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—The general subject of a reduction in world naval construction was taken up today by the senate foreign relations committee at executive hearings which will be continued Wednesday and which may run for some weeks.

Specifically the committee had before it the Borah resolution asking President Wilson to initiate negotiations with Great Britain and Japan looking to a reduction of fifty percent in the naval building program of those countries and the United States.

Great Britain, Senator Borah, was reported to have said could be expected to urge reduction of the French army if she should consent to reducing her navy.

Admiral Coontz, chief of naval preparations and his aides were the only witnesses examined today. Committee members said there had been no suggestion that Secretary Daniels be invited to appear. While the committee was in session the naval secretary in his daily conference with newspaper correspondents reiterated his opposition to the Borah resolution and also took occasion to say that so far as he had been advised President Wilson had taken no steps looking to a disarmament conference among the world powers as he has authority under the naval act of 1916.

Says Coontz Opposed.

Admiral Coontz, senator, said opposed the Borah resolution or any other plan based on a percentage reduction in building, arguing that a reduction would fail to bring about any equalization of naval power because of the different size of the programs of different nations.

The committee was told by the admiral that the American building program was the largest and the Japanese second, but that even with the completion of the Japanese program Japan's navy would have only about half the strength of the American navy. Great Britain's building program is comparatively small, the senators were said to have been told and unless it is increased before 1924 the American navy would about equal the British.

France and Italy have small building programs, Admiral Coontz was said to have testified, but they are hampered by lack of funds.

All the principal powers, senators said they were informed, were spending considerable money and effort to keep themselves informed on the naval and military activities of other nations.

The records show that Illinois is second among the states of the union in the amount of hard roads build in 1920. The mileage was 329, second only to the construction work in Pennsylvania. Had it not been for excessive cost of materials still further work would have been done.

It is gratifying to most people to remember that Governor-elect Small has always been a friend of the good roads movement, and has given his promise that the work will be pushed during his administration just as rapidly as material and labor conditions make possible.

A suit to settle the question of state rights in relation to the control of railroads is underway. The railroads have maintained that after their return from government control all previous regulations were wiped out and that the rulings of the interstate commerce commission are effective. This has meant a substantial increase in fares. Certainly this long discussed question as to whether the interstate commerce commission has sufficient authority to override that within a state should sometime come to a final decision.

Farmers of Morgan county have planted 64,000 acres of wheat this year. This is nearly 6,000 more acres than that planted in 1919. The acreage is somewhat larger than would come merely from adherence to a crop rotation plan and indicates the feeling that wheat growing is at present more profitable than raising of corn.

Von Bethmann Hollweg, German diplomat, is dead. The world heard much more about him four or five years ago than it has recently. It is said that he opposed the German submarine policy and warned his countrymen of the necessity of keeping the U. S. neutral. Certainly these facts constitute his greatest monument, for history affords the proof of the correctness of his view and the excellence of his advice.

THE PROMISE OF BETTER DAYS

Discussing the new year, the Springfield, Mass., Republican says:

It is not a mere coincidence that each year since 1914 has ended in some respects disappointingly, yet with a renewal of hope. The year just past is no exception, and the year to come is the richer in promise for the accumulation of deferred hopes. That they are only deferred may be confidently believed, and when they begin to mature the harvest may surpass the expectations of the most sanguine. In the tedious beginning of reconstruction after a great war one thing awaits upon another, but when a good start is got one thing helps another. Much that is amiss at the present moment has been awaiting upon events which will soon be determined. Much, for example, has been left undone because the United States is to have a new administration in March. The block once broken, things may begin to move with gratifying celerity, and the tasks left half done, or 99 percent done, may be quickly finished.

up and put to the credit of the year now beginning.

There is good ground then for hoping that 1921 will see the sharp upward turn in the trend of human fortunes for which all have been waiting. It may not come without further reverses and disappointments, and at best there will be some disturbing jolts before readjustment is attained, yet when the up-grade is clearly felt there will be an access of confidence and energy which will do much. Peace, order, and industry are now the great needs of the nation as of the world, and their full re-establishment will be the greatest gift that the new year can bring.

POOR EDUCATION

I'm sorry for the girls and lads who grow up in these wanton times for they have learned to blow the scads, have learned that care and thrift are crimes; they've seen their mothers and their fathers with wild abandon burn the dimes. They've learned it's folly to provide by saving, for the rainy day, that life is just one glad some ride along an endless Great White Way; that all sane rules should be defied, that dawn's the time to hit the hay. They've learned that silk alone is fit for gaudy bays and girls to wear but no one learns to sew or knit, or frame a decent bill of fare; and all must strive to make a hit, though creditors many year and swear. We've taught them many foolish tricks, we elders, who should be wiser; for we were buying broken bricks, and throwing roubles at the flies; we've got the young folks in a fix—with us the dark dissonance lies. They're starting out on their careers convinced that money grows on trees; and prudence to their view appears a thing that has the scent of cheese, and we misled these gallant boys, we boobies, with whiskers to our knees. It was our duty to be sane when younger folk blew in their wads, to rise like sages and explain that waste invites the chastening rods, to prove extravagance is vain and thrift the offspring of the gods.

COACH CHENOWETH WRITES OF GAME

Says That Waverly Was as Great an Offense as Athens in the Basketball Game.

The Journal is in receipt of a letter from Coach Chenoweth, athletic director of the Waverly high school relative to the basketball game between Athens and Waverly which was played in Waverly last Friday night.

The sports writer of the Journal stated that Athens started by using football tactics and that Waverly retaliated and that as a result Mr. Shale of Springfield, who was officiating alone, had a strenuous evening.

Mr. Chenoweth in his letter says that it was a rough game and that Waverly played her share and more. He said it was too fast a game for one man to control. Coach Chenoweth also says that all of the members of his basketball team are football players and inclined to be a little rough and also that it was only their third game. He also says Athens has the fastest team he has seen for some time.

The Journal has no desire to and did not intend to cast any reflection on Mr. Shale's ability as an official. In fact we believe if Mr. Chenoweth will read the story again he will see that it does not in the least condemn the official.

From what we know of Shale he is one of the most capable of officials both in football and basketball in this part of the state. We also know that one man can't run a fast basketball game if the players are inclined to be rough, without assistance. This does not reflect on the ability of the official for it is just a case or one man not being able to keep his eye on ten men when they are moving over a floor at top speed. However, we are glad to make this statement because the Journal also wishes to be fair and does not stand for anything but fair treatment and clean athletics.

IT HAPPENED IN JACKSONVILLE

The case told below is not an uncommon thing. The same occurs frequently and will continue to happen as long as folks have kidneys and overtax the kidneys. Jas. B. Seaver, prop. of blacksmith shop, 301 N. Main St., Jacksonville, says: "I had pains in the small of my back and when I bent over I had trouble in getting up. My kidneys were out of order, too. Doan's Kidney Pills soon regulated my kidneys and stopped the pains in my back."

The Results Lasted
Over five years later Mr. Seaver said: "I gladly confirm the statement I gave in praise of Doan's Kidney Pills. Doan's brought me a lasting cure." Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Seaver had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

Moundsville, W. Va.—"I had taken doctor's medicine for nearly two years because my periods were irregular, came every two weeks, and I would suffer with bearing-down pains. A lady told me of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and how much good it had done her daughter, so I took it and now I am regular every month and have no pain at all. I recommend your medicine to everyone and you may publish my testimonial, hoping that the Vegetable Compound does some other girl the good it has done me."

Mrs. George Tecard, 915 Third Street, Moundsville, W. Va.

How many young girls suffer as Mrs. Tegard did and do not know where to turn for advice or help. They often are obliged to earn their living by toiling day in and day out so matter how hard the pain they have to bear. Every girl who suffers in this way should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and if she does not get prompt relief write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., about their health.

WHITE HALL HAS NEW FIRE AND HOSE TRUCK

Combination Auto Truck is First of Number of Improvements Contemplated by City Council—Other White Hall News.

White Hall, Jan. 3.—The city has received a combination fire and hose auto truck, the first of a number of needed improvements that are under contemplation by the city council that are to be made at large expense. The new fire equipment is the best in this section of the state to be operated by a volunteer fire department. It was bought at an expense of $3,170, and was given a demonstration Friday by William Mace, the fire chief, with perfect results. The acquisition was engineered by the fire and police committee of the city council, consisting of C. A. Whiteside, H. Williams and Dr. H. H. Seely. In appearance and performance, the new White Hall fire fighting device is grand and glorious.

Rev. O. A. Carmean, who is engaged in revival meetings at Bethel church, near Medora, came home today to be present in the First Baptist pulpit over Sunday. He explained the source of the reported death of Rev. Thomas N. Marsh at Alton as coming from one of his fellow Baptist members of the vicinity of Alton, and Rev. Carmean promptly telephoned the news to White Hall, with the result that Rev. Marsh was the recipient of some very handsome bouquets and floral designs from old time friends. Rev. Marsh is very low, and the tender attentions of friends had a reviving effect on him. The news consequently got into the papers somewhat prematurely, the sum total of the result being that the pioneer preacher had his last days lengthened and made more glad by the tributes expressed in flowers and in other ways.

The Burlington railroad has taken a very sensible step to curtail the danger to trespassers on railroad tracks, by issuing orders to station and track men to keep old people off the railroad premises on account of their increasing numbers in quest of coal during the winter months rendering the hazard greater. During the past week there were two near accidents near the railroad junction just north of town. One was that of a family driving in a covered buggy escaping being struck by a passenger train by only a fraction that would have paused a second. The other was in the case of a fast passenger train sounding an alarm for an old man to get off the track, and when the aged man saw his predicament he jumped further than he has jumped for a good big number of years, no doubt, and by the time he landed on the road at the side of the track the engine was nearly past him, the beam of the pilot missing him by less than a foot, according to the statement of witnesses. Careless trespassing and driving are the sources of the greatest number of fatalities on the railroads.

AYERS BANK DIRECTORS ADD TO SURPLUS FUND

Make Transfer From Undivided Profits Accounts—Capital and Surplus Now $500,000—Monday Very Busy Day.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Ayers National Bank, held at the office Monday morning, January 3rd, a resolution was adopted transferring $250,000 from undivided profits' accounts to surplus, making the combined capital and surplus of the bank, $500,000.

The net earnings of the bank under its present management, during the past ten years have been $425,536.34 out of which $160,000 has been distributed to its stockholders and the remainder in accordance with the conservative policy of the bank has been retained, thus giving additional strength to the institution and increasing its ability to meet the requirements of its depositors.

Monday the bank was a busy place. The accumulated business of the two non-business days—New Year's day and Sunday—together with that resulting from accession of the Dunlap, Russell & Co. bank, naturally brought about this condition. Customers of the Dunlap, Russell & Co. bank immediately made themselves at home at the Ayers bank, where they found familiar faces within the cages.

The increase in business at the Ayers National is making some desk rearrangements necessary and machines of late design have been installed to facilitate record work. While, as indicated, the bank corridor was crowded yesterday, the adjustment incident to the consolidation took place with seeming ease and in accordance with the plans outlined by the bank officers.

Mrs. Wilson is an artist of exceptional ability and her recitals are always well worth hearing.

The two duets, "Sweet and Low" and "Roses of Picardy," by Mrs. Wilson and her daughter, Miss Genevieve Wilson, were also well received. Miss Wilson acted as her mother's accompanist throughout the program and her work was of a very satisfactory kind. The people of Lynnville precinct felt themselves very fortunate indeed in having this talented artist appear in their midst.

SURE WAY TO GET RID OF BLACKHEADS

There is one simple, safe and sure way that never fails to get rid of blackheads and that is to dissolve them.
To do this get two ounces of calomel powder from any drug store—sprinkle a little on a hot, wet sponge—rub over the blackhead sponge—wash the parts and you will be surprised how the blackheads have disappeared. Big blackheads, little blackheads, no matter where they are, simply dissolve and disappear, leaving the parts with out any mark whatever. Blackheads are simply a mixture of dirt and dirt and secretions from the body that form in the pores of the skin—pinching and squeezing out cause irritation, make large pores and do not get them out after the become hard. The calomel powder and the water simply dissolve the blackheads so they wash right out leaving the pores free and clean and in their natural condition. Anybody troubled with these unsightly blemishes should certainly try this simple method.

INSANE PATIENT HAD SKULL FRACTURED

David Cratsenberg Deid From Injuries Resulting From Attack by Fellow Patient — Too Few Attendants Coroner's Jury Believes.

A jury empanelled by Coroner Rose held an inquest at Jacksonville State hospital Monday afternoon to learn the cause of the death of David C. Cratsenberg. The man was struck or kicked by a fellow patient Sunday night and the injuries resulted in his death early Monday morning. The jury after examination of a number of witnesses, brought in a verdict to the effect that Cratsenberg came to his death from a fracture of the skull which caused a hemorrhage; and from the evidence we believe the fracture was caused by a blow received from another patient.

happening. At the inquest various questions were asked purporting to bring to attention the small number of employees in relation to the number of patients. It is stated that this was not done for the purpose of criticizing the superintendent but with the thought in mind that the working force provided for the hospital is not adequate.

Dr. Hill, managing officer of the hospital, stated frankly that there are not enough employees and that the institution is short in its appropriation.

Investigating the death of David C. Cratsenberg, a patient, who was struck or kicked upon the head about 8 o'clock Sunday night, a coroner's jury today delved into the need of a larger working force for the Jacksonville State hospital. Cratsenberg died as the result of the fracture of the skull which caused a hemorrhage; and from the evidence we believe the fracture was caused by a blow received from another patient.

Cratsenberg was in a ward where there are 67 patients and they were in charge of one woman attendant at the time of the hospital, was asked numerous questions by the juryman, and explained briefly how the institution is "up against it" in the way of finance and employees.

Blow Fractured Skull
Cratsenberg, the patient, attracted the attention of D. E. Vermillion, an attendant, about 8 o'clock Sunday night, with cries of pain. The nurse found that he was suffering from a blow or blows on the head, and called Dr. J. F. Smith of the hospital. The suffering patient was removed to the institution hospital, where he died at 2 o'clock in the morning.

A post mortem examination made during the morning by Dr. Smith and Dr. T. T. Macklin revealed that a blow on the left side of the head had caused fracture and concussion on the right side. The blow resulted in stopping the respiratory passages.

The injured patient on his way to the hospital told the nurse that "Lewis" had hurt him. He soon became unconscious, and no details of his injury were learned.

It is the supposition that Cratsenberg, offender Ludwig, which Ludwig resented with a blow, probably followed by a kick to the head after his victim fell to the floor.

Patient Troublesome
It was brought out in the testimony of Dr. Smith, who was the first witness called by Coroner Rose, that Cratsenberg was considered rather a "pest" by the majority of patients. Cratsenberg singled out a patient whom he regarded as "his son," and the patient was Ludwig, according to testimony. Cratsenberg never fought, but was considered troublesome, the witnesses stated.

Dr. Macklin, who assisted in the post mortem, was the second witness. He stated that the dead patient must have fallen, and that the wound on the head might have resulted from a fall, instead of a blow.

The attendant in charge of the ward where Cratsenberg and Ludwig were patients, Bessie Vermillion, said she was making out reports for the day when the cries of Cratsenberg attracted her. She called the physician, and accompanied the victim to the hospital where medical aid was administered.

Patient Once Choked.
It was brought out in the testimony of Jerry Olroyd, the fourth witness, that several months ago Cratsenberg was choked by Ludwig. A report of the affair was made, it was stated at the inquest.

Cratsenberg was a small man, and was 34 years old. His mentality could be compared to that of a 6 or 6 year old child, the physicians stated. On the other hand, Ludwig is well built, and was much the superior in strength.

Cratsenberg was committed to the institution here from Adair, Hancock county, Illinois, Feb. 6, 1919.

William Batz was foreman of the coroner's jury; the other members were C. J. Barff, Lewis Leurig, J. F. Claus, Frank Sullivan and F. J. Blackburn.

Institution Needs.
Dr. Hill, in discussing the death with the juryman, said he had been making efforts to bring about a larger appropriation from the Illinois legislature for state institutions.

While he believes that two, three or even a dozen attendants might have not prevented the fatal injury to Cratsenberg, he stated that the institution needs more money and more employees. He said there is now a deficit of $10,000 in the payroll of the hospital.

He spoke of occupational training as a means for promoting peace and contentment among patients as this plan is working out very satisfactorily here. Mr. Olroyd was recalled to the witness stand to testify as to the results he noticed in occupational therapy. This system has greatly reduced trouble among patients, was his opinion.

The juryman questioned Dr. Hill as to the methods of securing a larger appropriation for an institution such as the state maintains here. They were told that it lay in the hands of the legislature, and that their action would bring about assistance to state institutions.

Stored Foods

At certain seasons of the year, nature mothers us in generous lavishness; at other seasons she treats us as outcasts.

One great service rendered by Swift & Company to the consumer is in taking some of the surplus of nature's plenty and storing it against the season of non-production. This is a service based upon sound common sense and meets a definite economic need.

This enables you to obtain all the year round some foods which otherwise would be so abundant in certain months that the entire supply could not be used, and so scarce at other times that prices would be prohibitive.

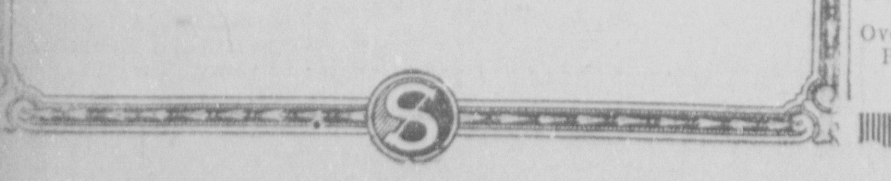

Swift & Company has equipped its plants and branch houses with refrigerating plants, and has a sufficient number of refrigerator cars to carry a supply of meat foods to its customers. Space in public cold storage warehouses also is used by us to carry perishables until they are needed.

We store only enough meat, butter, poultry, eggs, and cheese to supply our customers during the period of scarcity and not to speculate on rising prices. Our storage profits during the last eight years have averaged about one cent a dozen on eggs, and less than a cent a pound on butter and poultry.

Storage of food is a world necessity and we regard our part in this as an important factor in our service in supplying the nation with wholesome food.

What Happened from Feeding Sawdust to Hens—Chickens Have Wooden Legs.

Many Jacksonville people remember Dr. Stubblefield for many years on the medical staff at Jacksonville State hospital. The following from the Chester, Ill., Tribune is credited to Dr. Stubblefield and it is a good chicken story.

Dr. Stubblefield of the hospital came to this office the other morning, stopping on his daily morning walk of several miles, to tell the editor of a wonderful experiment on poultry which an inmate of the hospital performed recently. The Doctor had read somewhere of a wonderful story in which an enthusiastic poultry fancier had rigged up electric lights in his poultry house with a view to making the days longer for the hens and thus prevail upon them to perform longer hours of service in the way of laying eggs. The story went that the lights in the house were operated automatically, going on at a certain early hour in the morning and fooling the hens into the belief that daylight had come, thus getting them off the roost and producing in them the desire to produce eggs.

The patient at the hospital who has charge of the poultry division of the institution, became obsessed with the idea that if he should feed his poultry sawdust that startling results would be obtained. Acting on the idea of a diseased mind, the patient procured a quantity of sawdust and isolated one of the most lively looking hens of the flock. To this hen he fed the sawdust for a period. The hen seemed to thrive and began to lay. Twelve eggs were produced by the hen which then showed a desire toward maternity and she was hovered over the eggs.

In due time the eggs began to hatch and lo and behold! eleven of the chickens came forth with wooden legs and the twelfth was a well formed, well developed woodpecker.

FORMER WHITE HALL RESIDENT MARRIED

Miss Frances Brantzell Is Bride of E. F. Burns of Philadelphia, Pa.—Ceremony Performed at Bride's Home in Davenport, Iowa.

The Davenport (Iowa) Times of recent date contained an article telling of the marriage there of Miss Frances Brantzell, formerly a resident of White Hall. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Brantzell and has during the past months been a member of the Demsey hotel staff at Davenport. The item referred to follows:

The marriage of Miss Frances Brantzell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Brantzell of 1901 West Sixteenth street, and Edward F. Burns of Philadelphia, Pa., was a ceremony of 9 o'clock this morning, taking place in St. Alphonsus' church, where Rev. Father Maerke read the ceremony and celebrated the mass.

Miss Mina Brantzell attended her sister as maid of honor and Miss Farrell of DeWitt was the best man.

The bride wore a gown of ponce velvet made with brown silk lace, with peacock blue embroidered panel effect on the side. Her hat matched her gown and she wore a corsage of sweetheart roses and stelia. The maid of honor was in brown figured georgette over old gold charmeuse, with hat of silver embroidered in yellow wool. She wore a corsage bouquet of Aaron Ward roses and stelia.

Covers were laid for 20 at the wedding breakfast that was served at the Terrace Gardens and the bridal couple left on the noon train for the east. They will be at home after Feb. 1, in Philadelphia where the groom has prepared a pretty apartment for his bride.

Mrs. C. W. Dossell of White Hall, Ill., and Lee Berline of Chicago, were out of town guests at the wedding.

The bride has been with the Dempsey hotel staff for the past several months. She has made many friends since coming from White Hall, Ill., to make her home in this city.

Mr. Burns is advertising manager with the Thomas Cusack Outdoor Advertising company of New York.

WRECK ON WABASH AT BATES DELAYS TRAINS
East bound Wabash freight No. 92 suffered disaster Monday morning when thirteen cars left the rails at Bates, a few miles this side of Springfield. No one was injured; but it required about six hours to clear away the wreck, and to restore traffic between Jacksonville and the capital.

West bound passengers No. 53 and No. 9, also a special show train east bound for Springfield, were detained via Murrayville over the Chicago & Alton Air line. Passenger traffic was somewhat delayed. No. 53, due in this city about 9:30, came in an hour and a half late. No. 9 was also late.

Nothing is known as to the cause of the wreck.

HER HOME LOOKED LIKE DRUG STORE

Well Known Nurse Was Sick a Long Time—Had An Operation, In Hospital Five Weeks—Slow to Get Well So Gave up Nursing

Now Publicly Endorses Drecto for the Good It Has Done Her.

"After lying in a hospital five weeks from an operation, I regained my health so slow that I had to quit nursing," declared Mrs. Margaret Kelly, of 504 East Mulberry St., Bloomington, Ill. "For seventeen years, I was troubled with constipation so that I took a pill every night of my life. My liver was very lazy often causing terrible headaches and dizzy spells, my kidneys got out of order so that pains in my back nearly drove me mad. I couldn't sleep sound, my appetite was poor and my digestion faulty. Gas filled my stomach after meals and I often had griping pains in my bowels."

"The different medicines I have taken seeking relief made my home look like a drug store. My years of nursing experience taught me to observe the effect of medicine so I took but a few days to realize that Drecto was acting on me differently from all the others. My constipation was soon relieved, liver took on new life which stopped dizziness, pains in my back disappeared, my stomach digested my food without forming gas, and my nerves steadied down. Drecto has done for me what I've sought after for years, so I honestly advise everyone who has the same troubles, to take this great root and herb remedy."

All druggists now sell Drecto and it is being especially introduced in Jacksonville by Coover Drug Co. and J. F. Shreve.—Adv.

PLAN TO AID CAMPAIGN FOR RELIEF FUNDS

Ministers Will Co-operate in Effort to Raise Money for Starving Children in Europe and Near East.

A campaign here by which to raise funds for the relief of suffering humanity of the Near East and Central Europe was the chief subject of discussion at the regular meeting of the Jacksonville Ministerial Association Monday. An organization of the ministers was perfected in order that the campaign will be carried on with better results.

Some weeks ago the ministerial association endorsed the drive for relief, at which time a representative of the (American organization addressed the members. It is believed that the people of Jacksonville will be liberal in their contributions to this cause.

A clearing house committee with the following members was appointed: Dr. E. L. Fletcher, Rev. A. A. Todd, Rev. W. E. Collins, Rev. J. F. Langton, Rev. W. H. Marbach and J. S. Findley.

Mayor Crabtree was chosen treasurer to handle the relief funds. Another important subject considered at the meeting today was the provision of announcements and religious literature racks in hotels and railroad passenger stations here. A committee consisting of Rev. M. L. Pontius, Rev. Thomas W. Smith and Rev. D. V. Goudy was appointed to provide literature racks and religious materials that might be of interest to travelers.

Plans were also discussed for a Father and Son's banquet to be held during the week of Feb. 12. Rev. T. H. Tull, Rev. W. E. Collins and J. S. Findley were named to arrange for the banquet.

Daily Market Report

SHARP ADVANCES IN PRICE OF WHEAT

By Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Jan. 3.—Unusually sharp advances in the price of wheat took place today owing in the main to talk of heavy export buying and to the senate passing the war finance act over the president's veto. Closing quotations were strong 7 1/4c to 9c net higher with March $1.76 1/2 to $1.78 1/2 and May $1.71 1/2 to $1.73 1/2. Corn gained 1 1/2 to 2 1/2c, oats 1/2c to 2c and provisions 5c to 45c. Values in the wheat pit rose to the highest level yet this season for the May delivery and to the best figures since the first week in December for March. From the outset there was an active demand from houses with eastern connections, whereas offerings throughout the day were light.

Besides export purchases in the southwest were said to have been on a large scale and to have included 200,000 bushels for France. Improved domestic call for flour was also noted.

Topmost prices of the day were reached after news that the senate had overridden the presidential veto of the war finance measure and that the house would probably follow suit.

Corn and oats sympathized with the advance in wheat. In addition, corn was bullishly affected by export business at St. Louis and Baltimore.

Provisions were lifted chiefly as a result of grain strength.

CIVICS CLASS AT COUNCIL MEETING

High School Students Study Council Procedure at Monday Night's Meeting—Appropriation Ordinance Given First Reading.

About twenty five members of the civic class of the high school in charge of Miss Catky visited the city council meeting Monday evening and took first hand study of council procedure.

The students were much interested in the manner in which municipal business is conducted. Especially was this true of the appropriation ordinance which was given first reading.

Mayor Crabtree extended welcome to the students and told them the council was always glad to have visitors and expressed the hope that they would come again.

Frank Cohen speaking for the students thanked the council for the courtesy extended. He voiced the belief that they had received much benefit from their visit.

Miss Catky also spoke briefly expressing appreciation for the welcome given the students. She said that they might accept the invitation of the Mayor and visit the council at some future meeting.

The Proceedings
When the clerk called the roll it showed all members present. Mayor Crabtree presiding. The minutes of the last meeting was read and approved.

A communication from Carl Swanson secretary of the Plumber's union was read asking what action the council intended to take toward appointing a plumbing inspector. Mr. Swanson intimated if some action was not taken that the union would take up the matter with state authorities. Action was deferred until the next regular meeting.

A letter to Vincent R. Riley from the Good Roads Service company was read. The letter stated that the signs to be placed at the edge of the city limits were ready and asked Mr. Riley to have a slogan selected for the city to be placed on them. The signs mark the course of the Mississippi Valley Highway association. The matter was referred to the civics class of the high school to select the slogan.

Claims against the city were then presented and on motion all those properly approved were ordered paid.

Officers' Reports
The following officers' reports were read by the clerk:
Frank Kiloran, chief of police, reported 16 arrests for December. Total amount of fines and costs collected $146.10.
H. C. Clement, city treasurer, reported a balance in the general fund December 31, of $2,953.33.
W. H. Cobb, water superintendent, reported the following receipts: Meters, $13.00; taps, $6.00; meter repairs, $1.25; water rent, $2,889.32. Mr. Cobb stated that the state institutions and one manufacturing firm had not paid in time for the report, else the receipts would have been much larger and nearer the average of past months.
R. L. Pyatt, city clerk, reported receipts as follows: Jacksonville cemetery, $146.00; Diamond Grove cemetery, $414.10.
City clerk's office, $1,605.27.
Frank Tendick, superintendent of garbage disposal, reported receipts of $636.53 and disbursements of $3,329.27.
H. H. Summers, sexton of Diamond Grove cemetery, reported 15 interments.
Frank Kiloran reported collections of $552.00 for oil inspection and $4,960 for wheel tax.
Dr. A. M. King, city health physician, reported a total of 41 deaths, residents, 23; non-residents, 25. 23 wards, First ward, 9; second ward, 2; third ward, 9; fourth ward, 27.
The reports were received and placed on file.

Need New Fire Whistle
Ald. Moore called attention to the need of an electric fire whistle. With the removal of the light plant to its new location there will not be enough steam to operate the whistle during the time there is heat on the city building and in the summer there will be no steam at all. The matter was referred to the fire committee with power to act.

Ald. Moore also reported that the firemen had repainted the steam fire engine and that it was now in first class condition.

Ald. Williamson again called attention to the bad condition of the alley in the rear of the Princess Candy company on the south side of the square. The chief of police was instructed to notify the offending parties that if they did not remedy conditions in ten days the city would take steps to enforce the ordinance.

Ald. McGinnis called attention to the bad condition of a number of crossings in the first ward. He mentioned specifically the one at the intersection of Dunlap and North East streets. Ald. Flynn also mentioned the bad condition of the crossing at East North street and Illinois avenue. The alderman said several hundred children had to cross there every day on their way to school and it was almost impassable because of mud and water. These matters were referred to Ald. Williamson, chairman of the highway committee.

Ald. Chapin reported that employees of the light plant were taking down the engines and generators preparatory to removing to the south end station.

L. B. Haynes asked the council to give residents of South Mainville street between College avenue and College street some relief from water from the plant of the Standard Oil company. The clerk was instructed to write the division manager of the company at Peoria and request that some relief be given.

The clerk was also instructed to write letters of sympathy to John T. Brown and George Young, em-

"ALL ABOARD FOR CUBA" AT THE GRAND TONIGHT

One of the season's biggest musical hits that will appear in this city will be the new Jimmie Hodges 1920 version of "All Aboard for Cuba," which will be the attraction at the Grand tonight.

The comedy this season is in two acts, and as the last three productions of Jimmie Hodges, it is a riot of fun, song, and terpsichorean revelries from start to finish. The settings are magnificent. No attempt has been made to be just gaudy with a mere color background, before which the vivid costumes of the chorus, and still more vivid the principals' covet to catch the eye, but there is an art to the background of "All Aboard for Cuba," which has helped to make it the one big musical hit of the year. The costumes are a delight to discernible color designs, so that the stage is never a moment without a picture.

"All Aboard for Cuba," is a musical show that makes the audience laugh uproariously, and will strain the sides and bring a catch to the throat and tears to the eye.

The same well known cast is with "All Aboard for Cuba," including Don Lanning, Johnnie O'Neil, Jean Chapman, Betty Desales and the Jimmie Hodges Female Chorus; also the All-American Trio.
